Additionally, she guided two players to all-conference honors while leading W&L to the ODAC postseason tournament where the Generals fell to eventual NCAA runner-up Randolph-Macon. King’s first season resulted in a six-game improvement over the previous season and also included a bid to the ODAC Postseason Tournament. Under her direction, two players earned All-ODAC honors and another finished second in the balloting for the conference rookie of the year award. Dean’na Mitchelson (Virginia ‘02) is in her second season as assistant women’s basketball coach at W&L. Prior to her arrival, Mitchelson served as head women’s basketball coach at Robert E. Lee High School during the 2003-04 season. Mitchelson captained the women’s basketball team at the University of Virginia where she was a four-year letterwinner.

THREE-DEEP:
Along with returning four starters, the Generals also bring back three players who saw playing time last season. The trio includes junior guard Sarah Otey, sophomore forward Hayley James, and sophomore guard Emily Wolff. Otey was injured for a good portion of the season, but has made a full recovery from off-season surgery and will provide a spark off the W&L bench this year. James, who missed the first nine games due to injury, became one of the Generals' top players off the pine by averaging 3.2 points and 3.8 rebounds per game. She also shot 35 percent from three-point range. Wolff, who will begin the season as W&L's starting point guard, averaged 2.0 points and 1.2 rebounds per game last year.

NEW FACES:
Third-year head coach Mandy King added quality talent and depth to her team as she brought in seven new players, including five freshmen and two seniors who are members of W&L's five-time defending ODAC champion volleyball team. The quintet of freshmen are guards Bethany Ridenhour and Casidhe Horan and forwards Kara Nadeau, Ashley Wohler, and Jamila Seaton. The pair of seniors are forward Christine Gladysz and center Taylor Gibson.

BALANCED SCHEDULE:
In the Generals' first eight games of the 2005-06 season, four will be played at road/neutral sites and four will be played within the confines of the Warner Center. Last year, W&L went 9-4 at home, but just 4-9 at road/neutral sites. The Generals open the season on the road at the Swarthmore Tip-Off Tournament and at Mary Washington before playing their next three games at home.
