COMMANDING THE GENERALS:

Mandy King (Southern Maine ’98) is in her first season as head women's basketball coach at W&L. King came to W&L after serving as the assistant women’s basketball coach at Bloomsburg University for two seasons. She also was a graduate assistant coach at the College of New Jersey for two seasons following graduation from the University of Southern Maine where she earned a bachelor of science in sports medicine in 1999. During her time at Bloomsburg, King helped the Huskies achieve a 36-17 overall record and two berths to the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference Tournament. The 2001-02 squad finished the season 21-6 overall and was ranked as high as second nationally in Division II. As assistant coach, King served as recruiting coordinator and was responsible for on-court coaching, scouting and game preparation. This season marks Erin Shaw’s (Southern Maine ’02) first as an assistant women’s basketball coach at W&L. Shaw, a 2002 graduate of Southern Maine, comes to Lexington after serving as the assistant women’s basketball coach at her alma mater last season. Amy Forbes (Salisbury ’01) enters her second season as an assistant for the Generals. Forbes is also the assistant women’s soccer coach, and helped W&L win its second-straight ODAC title this season, and advance to the NCAA South Region Championship.

OPPOSING COACHES:

Karen Harvey (Roanoke ’91) is in her ninth year as the head coach at Hollins. A former ODAC Player of the Year for Roanoke, she enters the season with a 45-151 (22.9%) career coaching record. Jenkins is assisted by Fred Thomas and Erika Hale. Stephany Dunmyer (Kenyon ’00) is in her first season as the head coach at Virginia Wesleyan. She takes over the Marlins after a year at the Division I level, proceeded by two years at the Division II level. Dunmyer is assisted by Allie Graf and Josh McElheny. Richie Waggoner (Roanoke ’92) enters his fifth season as the head coach at Lynchburg. He led the Hornets to their best-ever season last year with an overall mark of 16-10. Waggoner is assisted by Lauren Hedden and Brian Puckett.
ALL-TIME SERIES:
Washington and Lee’s match-up with Hollins marks the 20th meeting between the teams. Hollins trails the Generals, 14-5, in the all-time series but emerged victorious in the teams’ last meeting. In that game W&L fell to Hollins, 52-44, on January 24, 2003. The Generals last defeated Hollins on February 16, 2002, with a 58-56 decision. Washington and Lee faces Virginia Wesleyan for the 22nd time in program history and the second time in the last week, with the Marlins leading, 12-8, in the all-time series. Washington and Lee’s match-up with Lynchburg marks its 19th meeting with the Hornets. Lynchburg leads the all-time series with the Generals, 10-8.

while the Generals are facing Lynchburg for the 19th time.

LAST TIME OUT:
Senior forward Sarah Michaels tied her season-high with a game-high 28 points as W&L defeated Virginia Wesleyan, 69-56, on Saturday afternoon. Down 21-20 with 4:56 remaining in the first half, the Generals went on an 18-4 run to end the half, taking a 38-25 lead into the break. Watching W&L’s advantage swell to 20 points in the second half, Virginia Wesleyan battled back to within 11 points in the final moments of the game, but would get no closer. Michaels was also second on the team with eight rebounds while freshman forward Jessica Hunsinger led the Generals’ double-digit scorers with 14 points. Junior guard Bethany Dannelly was also among the W&L leaders with a season- and game-high seven assists.

UP NEXT WEEK:
Washington and Lee returns to the Warner Center on Monday when it hosts the Generals in Norfolk, Va. Senior guard Devin Allen leads Virginia Wesleyan with 12.2 points per game, while freshman guard Michelle Dove is second on the team with 9.2 points per game. Freshman center Nicole Thurston is the Marlins leading rebounder with 6.3 caroms per contest.
